Pediatric Lifesavers: Trauma in the ED

March 26, 2009

March 26, 2009
7:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
Prince Conference
Center at Calvin College
1800 East Beltline SE
Grand Rapids, Michigan

Pediatric trauma cases present a particular challenge for nurses and other health care professionals. At this day-long conference, speakers will share the specialized knowledge and skills they have gained caring for children who have suffered trauma. A wealth of topics will include abusive head trauma, cultural diversity in emergency care, gang violence, and hemophilia and injury. You will come away with lifesaving strategies and approaches to pediatric care.

Keynote speaker Megan Bronson, MSN, CNS, BC, will speak on trauma aftermath. Bronson is a certified trauma consultant, psychotherapist and author on burn trauma.

Watch for the conference brochure in early February. For more information, call (616) 391-1085.
